In order for lawyers to help their clients reveal their hearts to a jury, great trial lawyers must be willing, and able, to reveal themselves. All applicants to the Trial Lawyers College must be mentally and physically able to participate in psycho-dramatic exercises which involve self-exploration and are sometimes emotionally stressful. If you have ever been treated for any mental or emotional problems, we advise all students to discuss this issue with a health care professional before attending any TLC classes or events.

I will need financial aid. TLC will contact you regarding your request for financial aid.

If you do not seek financial aid, please complete the following:

- Enclosed please find my deposit check for $567/course. I further agree to allow TLC to charge my credit card for $567.00/course for the next two successive months to complete payment for the course(s) or to charge my credit card for the final amount due prior to commencement of the course(s).
